MINOR—NEW PERMIT—ANTIDEGRADATION DEMONSTRATION

NEWPORT (town) WWTP, Permit No. IN0064220, VERMILLION COUNTY, NE CR 450 E, SW of CSX RR, Newport, IN. This municipal facility proposes to discharge 0.047 million gallons daily of treated sanitary wastewater into Little Vermillion River. ANTIDEGRADATION DETERMINATION: Newport proposes to construct a new WWTP discharging sanitary wastewater into the Little Vermillion River which would significantly lower the water quality. Therefore, the Town submitted an administratively complete Antidegradation Demonstration containing the required information in 327 IAC 2-1.3-5. The Antidegradation Demonstration provided an explanation of the necessity to accommodate additional wastewater flow which could not be treated with existing residential septic systems. Information was also provided to support why this activity is necessary to support important social and economic development in the area. A range of alternatives was presented with associated costs and feasibility information. In total, four (4) alternatives were considered: 1) No Action; 2) New Treatment Plant; 3) Regionalization with the Newport Chemical Depot; and 4) Waste Stabilization Lagoon. The preferred alternative (2) constructing a new WWTP facility is tentatively approved. All other alternatives presented to prevent or minimize the proposed significant lowering of water quality were either technically infeasible; and/or were not cost-effective, and would pose an undue hardship upon the Town of Newport. Therefore, the Antidegradation Demonstration may be approved in accordance with 327 IAC 2-1.3-6. Information was also provided indicating that the preferred alternative would not jeopardize endangered or threatened species. Permit Manager: Alissa Pryor, 317/232-8739, apryor@idem.in.gov.
